

satellite radio is the death of commercial radio we pay for it because it is better. i don't necessarily care to listen to local broadcasts but the should be glad to make it available on satellite. in any case i use xm because of the variety of music offered. many unrecognized musicians are now able to be heard. leave my radio unregulated